Big family? Is it important for you to be surrounded by your loved ones? Or would you like to spend some time away from everyone?

I offer for sale in Pacsa a 2-storey house (2x100 sqm) suitable for living together for several generations, with a third floor, the attic can also be built. Many good people can be accommodated in a small space, but a large space can certainly fit!

On the lower level there is a kitchen with dining area, a spacious and bright living room, a bedroom and a bathroom, a toilet in a separate room, a pantry and a boiler room. On the upper level there are three separate bedrooms, a separate bathroom and utility room, and a pantry for your ultimate comfort.

The brick-built, tiled roofed house sits on a plot of 1369 sqm, which is just the right size if you want to do some gardening but don't want to spend all your free time mowing the lawn. The garage in the courtyard can hold up to 3 cars, or a lot of things that "I'm not throwing out because they'll be good for something else".

A cosy patio seating area in the backyard is a great place for family or friends to gather and talk about the big things ...
